As a Guide to the level of membership we would expect you to pay:

- Ordinary Member $500 - the minimum level for any company that is serious about being a player in the bioenergy sector. Probably have under 10 staff active in bioenergy matters.
- Ordinary Corporate Members $2,000 – The membership level for serious parties in the sector. Probably have over 10 staff active in bioenergy matters.
- Full Corporate member $5,000 – This category is for the leaders in the sector and for companies wanting maximum market exposure.
- Sustaining Member $7,000 – at this level you get instant service on anything.
- Associate Member $250 – very small players in the sector and companies that are struggling to stay alive. This is the minimum service level.
- Individual Member $100 – students, retired people and observers of the industry. At this level you get the Newsletters and not much else.

Essentially membership is based on the principle that the more you pay the more you get.

BANZ needs your membership fees as we have very few other forms of revenue from which we can provide member services.
