Affiliates

Bioenergy Association has affiliation with a number of organisations with a strong interest in bioenergy. We work closely with these affiliates sharing events and activities, etc.

Forest Industry Contractors Association (FICA)

<http://fica.org.nz/>

The Forest Industry Contractors Association (FICA) provides a common voice on relevant issues and to foster development and improvement in the forestry contracting industry. FICA represents and advocates for the interests of contractors who collectively harvest 45 – 55% of the national annual round wood production.
